Tulsa Tech - Broken Arrow Campus
4000 West Florence Street, Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

April 18, 2025 - 6:30 pm

"Gospel Music Night" is finally going to happen! The weather has caused us to postpone our programs several times this year. Please notice the date and time change as we have returned to the third Friday of each month - however, we will use a different entrance and parking: Enter the campus from the east side (Olive Street) and use that building entrance to the Conference Center. Parking close to the building is permitted.

We are pleased to announce our special guests will be Joyce Bridgman, Professor of Keyboard Studies at ORU and Soloist, Ed Bridgman, her brother. They are from Spirit Life Church in Tulsa. Also several chapter members will present a variety of music.
